DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-17 and 21-23 are presented for examination. This office action is in response to the Appeal Brief filed on April 06, 2004.
2. In view of the Appeal Brief filed on April 06, 2004 and response to conference decision, PROSECUTION is hereby reopened.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

3. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Thomas Zell (Reg. No. 37,481) on September 22, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, after line 1, insert - - "a processor;" - -.

In claim 8, after line 1, insert - - "a processor;" - -.

In claim 21, line 1, delete [A method for enriching a document, comprising:], and insert - - "A computer-implemented method for enriching a document, comprising:" - -.

In claim 22, lines 1-2, delete [The method according to claim 21, wherein said performing further comprises:], and insert - - "A computer-implemented method according to claim 21, wherein said performing further comprises:" - -.

In claim 23, line 1, delete [The method according to claim 22,], and insert - - "A computer-implemented method according to claim 22," - -.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-17 and 21-23 are allowed.

Reason For Indicating Allowable Subject Matter

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Claims 1, 8 and 21, identify distinct features, the computer-implemented method and system for enriching a document. The closest prior art, Combs (U.S. Patent No. 6,138,129) discloses, document editor for enriching the document, directed search service for receiving input specifying a directed search while the document is authored with the document editor, inserting the directed search in the document as a document request, the directed search including search criteria and result parameter, the result parameter including information provider parameters, location parameters and form parameters, the Information provider parameters identifying one or more information providers to perform the directed search and provide search results. The prior art does not address the computer implemented method and system for the location parameters identifying where in the document the search results are to be inserted, the form parameter specifying a form in which the search results are to be inserted into the document, meta-document sever for performing the directed search specified in the document service request by querying the information providers specified in the result parameters of the directed search with the search criteria specified in the directed search, inserting the search results in the document using the location parameters and form parameters that identify the location and the form to insert the search results In the document. Combs fails to suggest the claimed limitation as mentioned above in combination with other limitations of the dependent and independent claims. The claims 1-17 and 21-23 are hereby allowed.
